To begin, I would very much like to thank the Board of Directors for all their support and their dedication towards the 4-H program. I believe each region was represented very well at the board table. Secondly, I would like to thank the Ministry of Agriculture and Lands for continuing to believe in 4-H. I would especially like to thank Pat Tonn and her staff for helping B.C. 4-H move forward in our changing and challenging environment.

Our B.C. 4-H office did have some change in staff this past year but I am very proud of how our remaining staff managed to keep things going and provided the services to the B.C. 4-H community.

Obviously, the 4-H program in B.C. is successful only due to our large body of volunteers. I would like to congratulate all our volunteers for their dedication and willingness to help our young people to learn skill sets that will allow them to become better people and better citizens for the future.

Lastly, I would encourage all of us to be progressive thinkers, to accept change, and to be as adaptable as we possibly can be as we carry the torch into the future. I certainly appreciate hearing from the older alumni that 4-H has changed since they were in 4-H. Hearing such a statement does mean our organization continues to move forward in a positive direction.

Once again, to our total organization, it has been an honour to be your B.C. 4-H president and to represent one of the finest youth programs in our nation.

Lorne Schmalz
President, B.C. 4-H

As we work together to promote agriculture in British Columbia, I want to express my sincere gratitude for your continued dedication to the industry that is the core of our economy. 4-H leaders and members are a driving force in sustaining B.C. agriculture over the long-term and your efforts are commendable.

4-H provides many young people with opportunities they might not have otherwise, giving them a forum where they can be themselves and grow into being the innovative producers of tomorrow. You motivate, teach and encourage, promoting agriculture while building communities and bringing people together.

We know 4-H clubs across B.C. will continue to promote rewarding careers in agriculture amongst young people. We stress agriculture's importance more than ever right now as we look to the industry to lead the way to economic recovery, providing solid jobs and responding to challenges with innovation. Your passion for agriculture is shared to the benefit of both farmers looking to plan for succession and British Columbians in general.

The partnership we have is deeply valued by this government, and together we will make sure that the youth of tomorrow can still enjoy a vibrant B.C. agriculture industry thanks to the efforts of youth today.

Ron Cantelon

Minister of Agriculture and Lands

We have many changes and great productivity to report for 2008! We were pleased to welcome Jennifer Bergen to our team in Vernon. Also, the Youth and Community Development Programs and B.C. 4-H benefitted from the work of two summer students, Holly Eng and Tiffany Tong.

We continue to strengthen volunteer training, create resources and develop youth programming in 4-H around the province as we build the agriculture leaders of tomorrow...today.

Some of the highlights for 2008 included: The new program Clover Crew for 4-H promotion and agriculture awareness in each region of the province. Regional workshops such as 4-H to the Extreme in the Fraser Valley and Catch the Clover in Vernon brought leadership, agriculture and 4-H project information to 4-H members, leaders and families. The provincial 4-H Leaders' Conference was a motivating and educational experience for over 90 B.C. 4-H Leaders. Thank you to the volunteer leaders for the time and expertise you offer youth in agriculture each day through 4-H.

Also, our compliments to the Board of Directors for their leadership in this year of many transitions. We look forward to working in partnership with B.C. 4-H to develop programming for youth interested in agriculture in rural BC and beyond.

Pat Tonn

Manager, Youth and Community Development Programs

CENTRAL INTERIOR REGION

2008 was another busy year, we had some new projects in the Districts, photography, and archery. Williams Lake had 14 more members with a total of 256, Quesnel had one less club with a total of 60 members, the economy is affecting their numbers, they have had mill shutdowns and shortened work weeks, Prince George had 107 members, a few down from the year before. Robson Valley still had no members, maybe in 2009. There were lots of varied projects in the region. All districts had another successful year at their Achievement Days, Fairs and Show and Sales.

On March 7th Regional Public Speaking was hosted by the Kersley Club of Quesnel. Amy Stafford from the Chimney Valley Club went on to Provincials and placed second.

On May 24th Regional Demonstrations were hosted by the Horsefly Club of Williams Lake. Jenny Sparks of Pineview Club and Sarah Vohar of Northwest Club went on to the Provincial finals.

The Region sent a team of 3 members to judge at South Coastal 4-H Judging weekend once again.

We have selected a new ambassador for 2009 - 2010, Rohan Keenan, he is from the Williams Lake District, he is excited about the year ahead and will do an awesome job!

September 26, 2009 the third "4-H Family Frenzy" will be hosted by Quesnel District. The facilities that will be used make it possible to have animals for some of the workshops, it should be fun!

We are looking forward to another great year in 2009.

Jackie Halliday

FRASER VALLEY REGION

The five districts of the Fraser Valley Region worked together to continue to offer local programs and opportunities for members and leaders. In March, a very successful and well-attended 4-H to the Extreme was held at the Aldergrove Secondary School. In July many of our members traveled to Vancouver Island to participate in the South Coastal 4-H Judging Weekend. Alternating these events reduces stress on both leaders and sponsors.

Membership in the Region dropped slightly to 625 members from 640 in the previous year. These numbers appear to be consistent with the provincial trend. We were pleased to have 5 Ambassadors working in the region providing promotions, teaching and judging.

Districts have provided their members with opportunities like Food Safe, First Aid and junior camps. Meeting members from the district and region is very beneficial to club members.

With the assistance of a BCMAL summer student, we now have a new regional display which can be used for promotional purposes. The display can be adjusted to focus on either attracting members or leaders.

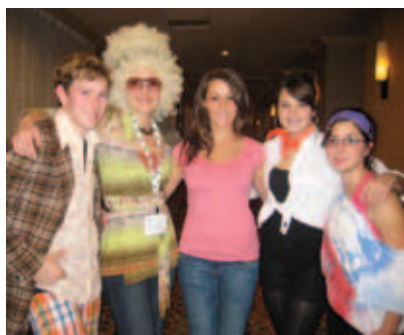

We want to express our thanks to our sponsors, our volunteers, the BCMAL staff and the provincial B.C. 4-H office staff for their commitment over the past year.

Glenda Reid

KAMLOOPS OKANAGAN REGION

2008 was a busy year for our region. We hold Catch the Clover once every two years and 2008 was "the" year. It was well attended with approximately 116 participants. With numbers in the region generally down, we thought this was a good response. Great speakers with lots of great information. (continued on next page)

Regional Public Speaking was hosted by Grand Forks and Demonstrations were hosted by Salmon Arm. Salmon Arm also hosted leader workshops in April.

We had 13 applicants for PCW and our quota was 11 so we were able to put forth some alternates. For the Rural Urban program we had 9 applications and our quota was 10. We were able to send 3 members to South Coastal Judging. Feedback from these programs was very positive. Some of our leaders also attended the Provincial Leaders Conference in Kelowna. We decided to make it a requirement that all program applicants to be interviewed by their districts before having their applications forwarded to our council for consideration. Our ambassador candidates were also interviewed by Laura Code and Breena Kotz (our out going ambassador).

We again held a regional record book competition with 9 junior entries and 12 senior entries. All books were very well done.

Regional Council is a challenging position with our districts so wide spread, but we manage to come together and get things done. Kudos to all Regional Council Reps.

Lorna Kotz

KOOTENAY REGION

The Kootenays had a great 4-H year. There were two clubs in the Cranbrook District and three clubs in the Creston District for a total registration of just under 100 members.

Kootenays hosted the Provincial 4-H Public Speaking competition. We had a junior member who acted as MC and he did an excellent job.

Our Regional Rally is going to be held in Cranbrook every year now as it is the most central place in the region and everyone will be responsible for helping with classes and organizing.

A very successful Show and Sale was held in June with all members doing very well in the showmanship and sales. Beef, swine, and lamb were all sold. This event acts as their achievement day so most clubs complete their year end in June.

In September, Cranbrook District holds a 4-H family camp at Rock Lake – a beautiful spot for such an event! The 4-H members all look forward to this every year.

Have a great 4-H year for 2009!

Susan Hoszouski

PEACE RIVER REGION

2007/2008 4-H year was another success but with a few challenges in the South Peace. Member numbers dropped in the south but the north is going strong. The beef club dropped to 10 members so the South Peace achievement day was moved to the fall fair in August. This worked well for the members since they were also able to compete in some 4-H events.

Dawson Creek hosted the regional communications days in March. Safety camp was held in May, which is always a fun time for adults and members.

North Peace held their achievement day in July. The 50/50 was at the Dawson Creek Fall Fair Rodeo. This is a big fund raiser for both the North and South Peace council districts.

South Peace is facing some challenges for 2009 since there are no beef clubs and the sheep club has also folded.

In closing I have enjoyed my many years with 4-H first as a parent then leader and provincial rep. Hoping that 4-H will again be strong in the South Peace. Wishing everyone all the best.

Ann Hogberg

VANCOUVER ISLAND REGION

Another year has passed quickly for Vancouver Island 4-H Regional Council. We had an excellent turnout and increased sponsorship for our intermediate camp, Surviving the Challenge. Our Jr. Camp was also well attended and enjoyed by the members and will be sadly missed in 2009 due to lack of volunteer coordinators.

This year the regional competitions were held in Powell River District for Public Speaking, and Demonstrations and Educational Board Competition was hosted by Cedar District. The Region was well represented at provincial communications competitions, as well as PCW and the Ambassador program.

A number of district judging field days led to some excellent participation from our Region at the South Coastal 4-H Judging Weekend at Camp Pringle in the Cowichan area.

Regional Council continues not to do a fundraiser as districts have been more inclined to pay to council $2 per member and a $75 district assessment in order to not overwhelm their communities with too many fund raisers. There were a number of individual club and district fund raisers that took place to assist outside organizations such as B.C. Cancer, Breast Cancer, Canadian Diabetes and the B.C. 4-H Foundation. To date, the region has donated $262.83 in pennies to the B.C. 4-H Foundation as well as $500 towards B.C. 4-H programs.

Island fairs were attended by the regional clubs and the animal auctions again were very profitable for 4-H members in the Saanich and Cowichan areas. The number of participants from our Region attending the PNE continues to grow.

Closing off the year, many districts reported on their achievement and award banquets, as well as some social events such as skating, bowling and swimming parties. Overall, the Vancouver Island Regional Council has had a very successful year and we hope that we can increase membership in order to keep the 4-H program strong on the Island.

Susy Chung-Smith

YELLOWHEAD WEST REGION

The Yellowhead West Region had another successful year with 247 members and 66 leaders, down slightly from last year. There were 14 Clubs in total – a loss of 3 Clubs.

Mark Kulchar was the new Ambassador for the region, joining Gavin Hamblin who was in his second year.

The Bulkley Valley District hosted the Regional Public Speaking Competition on March 6th with Ambassador Gavin Hamblin from Bulkley Valley being the M.C. Jessica Lyell from Vanderhoof went on to represent our Region at the Provincial Competition.

Regional Demonstrations were to be hosted by Burns Lake but as only one District registered participants there was no competition. Amanda and Justin Byers from Vanderhoof went on to represent our Region at the Provincial Competition.

The Bulkley Valley District held their Spring Show in May and 4-H members from across the region attended. This is a big undertaking for the Bulkley Valley District and they do a good job of making everyone welcome.

The Yellowhead West 4-H “Land of Friendship” Junior Camp was held in July at the Tachik Lake Resort south of Vanderhoof. Unfortunately, this year, it was not well attended from other areas in the Region but we are hoping for better attendance next year.

All in all the Yellowhead Region had another great year!

Whitney Moutray

The ambassador team had an excellent year in 2008. Activity sheets poured in all year long making this one of the most productive ambassador teams to date. Some highlights of the Ambassadors work this year include:

- 11 presentations on the annual teaching topic “Comparative Judging”
- 24 thanks you’s to regional and provincial 4-H sponsors
- Articles submitted to 14 different publications
- Interviews on 5 radio stations and 1 TV station
- Numerous project and program workshops to 4-H clubs
- Assistance or hosting at more than 20 4-H events province wide

The winner of the Outstanding Ambassador Award for 2008 was Joanne Wyers from the Kamloops Okanagan region.

Ambassador alumnus Danielle Reid continued to work with the ambassador team in 2008 in her role as B.C. 4-H representative to the Canadian 4-H Council Youth Advisory Committee.

We’re looking forward to another exciting year of ambassador work ahead.

I think it is fair to say that 2008 has not been a banner year for the Foundation. Despite declining revenues, the trustees approved a donation of $40,000 to the Provincial Council. As is the norm these funds are used to promote and support 4-H activities province wide.

During the year ending October 31, 2008, our investments declined in value by 11.8%. It should be noted that this decline parallels the decline in the markets worldwide. The investments held are sound companies whose stocks are being devalued not because of any malfeasance or mismanagement by the company but by being part of the global economy. The dividends are still being paid and the interest generated paid on maturity. This is verified by the investment income earned. In 2008, interest and dividends totalled $35,584.00. The silent auction at the Leader's Conference generated $3,288.00 for the Foundation. This year our donations totalled $4,193.00, an increase of $1242.00 over last year.

Last July the Trustees met with the Provincial Council to begin a dialogue as to the marketing of B.C. 4-H not only to the 4-H community, but also to the agricultural community and the general populace at large. The issue of getting the 4-H message out across the province remains a challenge to us. We must work together to best utilize our limited resources to market B.C. 4-H to all sectors of the province. We're all about kids; let's spread the word.

In closing I would like to thank the trustees of the Foundation for their support during the year and to thank Debbie, our departing Executive Director and her staff for their support and commitment to 4-H in B.C..

IN MEMORIAM

Memorial Donations

Memorial donations are contributions made to the B.C. 4-H Foundation in memory of a deceased individual. A Foundation memorial donation is a fitting tribute to anyone who has been committed to rural British Columbia, agriculture or the 4-H movement. It is a means of ensuring that a special commitment is recognized, remembered and honoured.

How do I contribute?

Donations in any amount are welcome. Individuals and businesses may choose to contribute to the 4-H Foundation on an annual basis or through a one time only donation. Individuals may also choose to provide long term support to the Foundation as the beneficiary of their insurance policy or through memorial donations. All donations to the British Columbia 4-H Foundation are acknowledged with a charitable tax receipt, a listing in the annual report and appropriate certificates or pins of appreciation.

Wills and Bequests

A bequest in your will to the British Columbia 4-H Foundation will play a valuable role in supporting the worthwhile goals of the 4-H Program and will help to make a difference in the future of our rural youth, the communities in which they live and continuation of the rural way of life. All it takes is a simple clause: "I direct my Trustee to give to the British Columbia 4-H Foundation the sum of $_____ from my estate."

Since 1995, donations have been made to the B.C. 4-H Foundation in memory of:
