We want everyone involved to have a positive, fun and educational week so delegates need to adhere to the following standards. These standards apply to every delegate for the entire duration of the program.

1. Delegates must adhere to the standards outlined in the 4-H Canada Code of Conduct, and always act as a positive role model.
2. Delegates are expected to use words, actions, and behaviours that are respectful, non-judgmental, and kind, towards all fellow participants, leaders, volunteers, staff, bus drivers and presenters.
3. Delegates are expected to respect boundaries and personal space, both of themselves and others. Don't hesitate to ask for a quick time out if you need and be conscious of the needs of other participants.
4. Delegates are expected to respect the facility; keep your own space tidy as others are using the space too.
5. Delegates are expected to participate in the full program and are not permitted to leave the facility or program site for any reason.
6. Outside visitors are not permitted at the program.
7. Delegates must try their best to participate fully in all program activities.
8. Delegates attend to learn and experience, not text and tweet! Delegates' devices may be permitted to take notes/photos/videos if deemed appropriate, otherwise they must be put away during program.
